And Other True Stories . . .

Once upon a time, there was a boomtown called Houston. There was more than enough money to go around. People remodeling or building a new home called up a contractor and let him loose with their money.

How times have changed. Now, no matter who you are, any change that costs money has to be worth it. It has to be right the first time and have true value.

Finally, people in Houston are demanding the same quality, dependability, and workmanship that have satisfied our customers for over 13 years.

"We're not interested in doing the typical kind of work."

And neither are our customers.
Architects like Frank Gehry and CRS...
Companies like Sunar Hauserman and Interfirst Banks...

They all come to us because they want the very best architectural millwork and custom interior finishing they can get.
You can call us right here in Houston at 691-1446.
